Project title: Generative AI in Assignments

Researcher: Adrian Leong – atleo4@student.monash.edu

Researcher ID: 27030768

INTRODUCTION

This interview is part of an university assessment at Monash for FIT5125 Research Methods. The research aims to investigate students' attitudes, beliefs and behaviours in relation to using Generative AI to complete assignments. We are informing you that an audio recording and transcript will be shared with Monash University's teaching team as part of this research. This research will be used to explore how generative AI may be useful for teaching and to help us redesign education to account for the latest tool, generative AI, for teaching students better.

PARTICIPATION

Your participation in this research is entirely voluntary. You have the right to refuse to participate or to withdraw from the research at any time, even during the interview, without any reason whatsoever.

INTERVIEW PROCESS

The interview will take approximately 20-30 minutes. For your convenience, it will be conducted online on Microsoft Teams. You will be verbally notified when the recording is starting and when it is complete. We do not need your video, so you do not need to have your video feed on.

CONFIDENTIALITY

As mentioned earlier, the audio will be recorded, transcribed and shared with Monash University's teaching team. Aside from this, it will not be used anywhere else and will be destroyed afterwards.

QUESTIONS AND CONCERNS

If you have any questions or concerns about the research or interview, please do not hesitate to contact me at atleo4@student.monash.edu
